

ADVERTISEMENT ACCEPTANCE POLICY

Both editorial and advertising are needed to make publications fun, exciting and beneficial for the reader. The advertising in BSA publications contributes to the reader's value but cannot be counter to the goals and values of the movement.

Product endorsement by any member of BSA is not acceptable.

Any proposed copy or illustration involving the use of the uniforms or the insignia of Scouting must be submitted for review 5 days prior to the material due date.

It is within the discretion of the BSA to request samples for appraisal of items offered in advertising.

All advertising copy and artwork for Scouting magazine must be of a nature that would be deemed acceptable and in accordance with the principals and objective of the BSA.

No advertising copy or artwork, or any elements of the product or service being advertised, may have sexual/violent over or undertones.

All contest advertising must also be in compliance with U.S. Postal Service requirements of Periodical mail. These requirements include a statement of "No Purchase Necessary" and a defined end date of the contest.

Advertising for products with alcohol or tobacco content are not acceptable.

Advertisements for firearms, ammunition, weapons and all outdoor and camping gear must conform to the BSA safety manual and all applicable federal or state regulations.

Not acceptable are any products the BSA Health and Safety advisors deem as potentially dangerous or undesirable, i.e., martial arts instruction and weapons, fireworks, sneezing powder, etc.

The publisher reserves the right to refuse advertising for any animal, fish or bird or species the BSA believes should not be collected or kept on exhibit or as a pet.

Switchblades, stilettos and those resembling such are not acceptable.
